

MOON CYCLE

The Full Moon is in Scorpio on April 29th. With the Sun in the polar sign of Taurus, we're being asked to integrate seemingly opposing energies. Scorpio is psychologically demanding, asking us to dig deep, find the truth and claim our power. Taurus is a grounded energy, asking us to get clear about our values, simplify, build our material resources, develop practical skills, and prove ourselves. With the Sun and Moon in opposition, it's about integration and seeing the bigger picture. Whatever got started for you at the Aries New Moon may now be understood and brought to fruition.

With Neptune and Saturn in their native signs, we're given not only the strength and perseverance to build something solid, but help from the heavens, if we're willing to surrender our egos and trust.

KEYWORDS FOR SCORPIO/TAURUS: digging for the truth, power, trust, empowerment, sexuality, abuse of power, values, resources, skills, self-worth, money, proving the self, materialism.

KEYWORDS FOR ARIES: will, assertion, directness, forthrightness, aggression, war, instinct, independence, leadership, expression of anger, defense, confidence and frustration.

What have you learned about yourself in recent weeks? What's "coming to light?"
